NOTICE

■ VALE ALYSON ASHE

It is with the greatest sadness that we announce the death of Alyson Ashe, principal of Alyson Ashe & Associates, Legal Cost Consultants. Beloved by her family, her husband Jim and daughters Anthea and Edwina. Respected by many in the legal profession for her knowledge, commitment, strong technical skills and her warm, enthusiastic and joyful presence. Since 1989, Alyson specialised in the area of legal costs and commenced the business of Alyson Ashe & Associates, Legal Cost Consultants in 1995. Her list of achievements include her work in several law firms prior to her appointment as a registrar and taxing officer of the Supreme Court of New South Wales. In particular her roles as Registrar in Equity, Registrar of the Court of Appeal and as Senior Taxing Officer combined quasi-judicial work with court administration and significant experience in all aspects of litigation. Alyson's extensive knowledge of practice and procedure in litigation, particularly in the equitable and commercial jurisdictions manifested in the co-authorship of Nevill and Ashe: Equity Proceedings with Precedents - 1981. Alyson was proactive in law reform and was a member of The Law Society of New South Wales Costs Committee and the Costs Users Group convened by the Supreme Court of NSW. Alongside her professional career, Alyson cultivated a rich personal life. She was a talented cellist, wild flower farmer and adored mother, grandmother and friend.
